

Note: Due to the State of Emergency declared by the Governor of NH; the closing of New Hampshire public schools; and to decrease the potential spread of COVID-19, the Chair of the Lebanon School Board has determined this School Board Meeting to be an Emergency Meeting per RSA 91-A:2, II. Per Emergency Order #12, Board members are able to participate electronically in order to satisfy the quorum requirement of the public body. Emergency Order #12 also suspends the requirement of a physical location as long as the public can access the meeting at a minimum via telephone and is provided with information on how to do so. For the Lebanon School Board meetings, community members will be able to participate through ZOOM via telephone or video conferencing. A telephone number and link to the ZOOM meeting is located on the agenda as well as on the SAU #88 website. Meeting Notices will continue to be posted in at least two locations per our usual practice.
